FACULTY

PURPOSE

To award annually one faculty advisor who best achieves Psi Chi's purpose

ELIGIBILITY

The nominee must:

- be a Psi Chi member who has served at least three years as a chapter faculty advisor or coadvisor (only one chapter advisor may be nominated per year);
- have been active in Psi Chi activities for three of the last eight years, either as a faculty advisor and/or as a past member of the Psi Chi Board of Directors;
- be recognized for contributions to Psi Chi and psychology at the state, regional, national, and/or international level (e.g., scholarly activities, professional activities, active participation with professional organizations); and
- have motivated students at the chapter level by helping them to develop their sense of professionalism.

The chapter must have been active and in good standing with the organization (i.e., registering members, sending reports to Eye on Psi Chi, and voting in Psi Chi Society elections).

STYLE / STANDARDS

1. Nominations must be an electronic document written in English conforming strictly to the instructions in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (APA).
2. The text of the nomination letter is limited to 1,000 words in 12-point font (double-spaced).

SUBMISSION PROCEDURES

1. Chapters nominate their Psi Chi faculty advisor with a submission form and a letter of nomination (described below) online at www.psichi.org under the AWARDS/GRANTS section. The link for submissions is available at least one month prior to the deadline.
2. Submissions are accepted online until midnight local time on December 1. Late submissions will not be accepted.
3. The letter of nomination, limited to 1,000 words, must be in narrative, not list form, and must include:
 - a statement describing the nominee's contributions as a faculty advisor,
 - the length and dates of service as faculty advisor and/or as a past member of the Psi Chi Board of Directors, and
 - a statement describing the nominee's contributions to Psi Chi and psychology at the state, regional, national, and/or international level.

See examples of previous winning letters of nomination at www.psichi.org/awards/winners/denmark_win.aspx.

4. Submission form (next page).
5. The Psi Chi Central Office will compile information about the chapter's member registrations, reports to Eye on Psi Chi, and participation in Society elections.
