

IN THIS ISSUE:

- » Submit National Ballots
- » Convention Tips
- » Spring Eye Online
- » Convention Programs

DEADLINES:

- » March 15
National Ballots
Submission Deadline
- » March 15
Chapter Officer/Activity
Submissions Deadline
- » March 30
Summer Research Grants
Deadline
- » April 1
NSF/REU Grants Deadline

WEB SPOTLIGHT:

Distinguished Members
<http://snipurl.com/na2s>

Chapters: Submit National Ballots by March 15

The last day to vote online for Psi Chi's National Officers is tomorrow, March 15, 2007. Voting is one of the criteria used for several Psi Chi Chapter Awards, including the Model Chapter Award, and is also important in determining the future direction of Psi Chi. Information about this year's candidates and how to vote may be viewed here:

http://www.psichi.org/news/article_323.asp

Convention Tips: For Presenters and Attendees

Many Psi Chi members are now preparing to present research at or attend a regional, local, or national research conference. Psi Chi has prepared an online guide for first-time presenters or veterans, and Psi Chi Eastern Vice-President Susan Whitbourne has just prepared an excellent guide for attendees. Tips for both poster and paper presentations, sample poster layouts, and more can be found here:

<http://www.psichi.org/conventions/tips.asp>

Spring 2007 Eye Online

Articles from the recent Spring 2007 issue of Eye on Psi Chi are now featured online. Articles featured include the graduate school application process, leadership skills and Psi Chi's Programs, undergraduate psychology internships, undergraduate research experience and the job market, and U.S. education in a global context. All articles are also categorized by subject.

http://www.psichi.org/pubs/issue.asp?issue_id=96

Convention Programs Posted

Psi Chi programming at all six spring regional conventions and the APS and APA national conventions has been posted online. View these programs and also learn about student, international, and other conventions here:

<http://www.psichi.org/conventions/>