NATIONAL OFFICE EMAIL CONVERSION

The Psi Chi National Office has recently converted its email system. This was completed in an effort to place more security filters on the system. If you send email to any Psi Chi National Office email address, please do the following:

- Help us properly identify and respond to your valid email by being as specific as possible in the subject line.
- Note that email addresses of Psi Chi staff have changed. The new email addresses for National Office staff are `firstname.lastname@psichi.org`.
- Ensure that we have correct email addresses and contact information for your chapter, faculty advisor, and president. Log onto www.psichi.org to update your information.

Additionally, the email conversion began on 3:00 pm EST, Friday, January 16, 2009, and ended 9:00 am EST, Tuesday, January 20, 2009. If you have sent an email or submitted an award or grant during this time and have not received a response from the National Office, please contact us to verify receipt of the email or submission.

We apologize for any inconveniences the conversion may have caused you.
